

Press Release

The new route for the Rallye d'Algérie has been finalized: totally new and selective for the most demanding racers, but at the same time perfect for novices to desert rallying.

The Rallye d'Algérie (March 25th- March 31st 2018), with its strategic positioning in the international Rallies Tout Terrain calendar, is the season-opening test for rally professionals and lovers.

The Arak Sport team, boasting a 15-year World Championship experience and a limitless passion for the desert, presents a race par to none:

- Over 1,500 km of racing
- 3 bivouacs
- Italian and international medical assistance with air and road units
- Direct and fast sea transportation for vehicles and participants
- Simplified customs procedures
- 150 km (93.2 mi) motorcycle/quad mileage
- Competitive airplane ticket prices
- Simplified logistics

The race will unravel between the oases of Laghouat, El Golea, Timimou, and Ghardaia, crossing the spine-tingling landscapes of the western Grand Erg for over 1500 km, with three bivouacs in the legendary El Golea, on a slope overlooking the oasis.

Enchanted Dunes and plateaus alternate with the tracks crossed in the early Paris-Dakar races, and spectacular lakes appear like a mirage in the middle of the desert. The variety of settings will blow you away!

The adventure of the Rallye d'Algérie awaits you! Don't waste time: the promotional registration offer ends December 15th!

Arak Sport will treat all women taking part in the motorcycle and quad races, and all fully-female teams – cars, SSVs, and trucks – to a free registration!

For all additional information please visit our website www.algerally.com or contact the Racer's Office at +39 328 4613046 or info@algerally.com

Rallye d'Algérie

Press service